Missouri Board of Probation and Parole Announces Management Appointment

Missouri Board of Probation and Parole Chair, Brian Jamison announces the appointment of Cybelle Salzman as the district administrator at the Boonville Correctional Center institutional parole office in Boonville, Missouri.

"Ms. Salzman brings unique expertise to the position of district administrator. Ms. Salzman has worked in virtually all of the different programming available at Boonville, and will capitalize on that experience to make certain the reports her office produces are of the highest quality and decisions take into consideration all the available programs to help offenders succeed. Ms. Salzman has almost two years experience as a PO III in the Boonville office, and this will also help make the transition a smooth one."

Cybelle Salzman began her career with the department in March 1998, and held the position of probation officer I. Ms. Salzman has been at the Boonville office since that time, and was promoted as the first PO III in the Boonville office in November, 2007. Ms. Salzman has previous state experience with the Division of Youth Services, where she served as a youth specialist for two years, as well as experience as a teacher/counselor with Boone County Group Homes for two years following her graduation from Central Missouri State University in 1993 with a degree in Criminal Justice Administration.

The Boonville Correctional Center institutional Parole Office provides supervision services to all clients in the Boonville Correctional Center. There are 11 staff assigned to the Boonville institutional parole office.

"Ms. Salzman has a well established history of positive performance and leadership within the Missouri Department of Corrections. I am confident that she will excel in this position to the benefit of the Boonville Correctional Center institutional parole office and the staff assigned to that office."
