Dave Dormire named director of Division of Adult Institutions

Jefferson City Correctional Center Warden Dave Dormire today was named director of Division of Adult Institutions for the Missouri Department of Corrections (DOC). The appointment was effective September 1, 2011.

Dormire has over 36 years of experience with the Department of Corrections. He began his career in 1975 as a Corrections Officer I at the Algoa Correctional Center. In 1978, he was promoted to Caseworker I at the Missouri State Penitentiary. In 1988, Dormire was promoted to Associate Superintendent at the Western Missouri Correctional Center. He transferred to the Missouri State Penitentiary in 1991. In 1995 Dormire was appointed Warden of the Missouri State Penitentiary and continues to serve as the Warden of the Jefferson City Correctional Center.

"Dave has proven his leadership abilities over many years," said DOC Director George A. Lombardi. "He is well respected as a warden by his peers throughout the country. His skills at operating a maximum security prison, which have blended safety and security with strong rehabilitative efforts, will serve him well in his new position."

As an example of Dormire's leadership abilities, Lombardi noted the seamless transition of 1,350 offenders that occurred under Dormire from the old Missouri State Penitentiary to the Jefferson City Correctional Center when it opened its doors in 2004.

The Division of Adult Institutions is responsible for management of the state's 21 correctional centers.
